INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

Students of Ashulia School gathered on 22 February to observe the International Mother Language Day. 143 students came to assembly wearing caps decorated with Bengali words and letters. They sang the song "Amar Vayer RokteRangano Ekushe February" and gave flowers to the monument to show respect to the martyrs who died for the language in 1952. The teachers gave speeches describing the importance of the day. They the students arranged a small cultural program. After the program, the students took their lunch and then students of day shift came and participated in a drawing competition. Two students were awarded who did well in the competition.

NEW BOOKS FOR STUDENTS

All the students received new books on 8th February. All the students were very happy after receiving the books. After a few weeks they concentrate in regular study. This year 150 students received new books. Parents are also happy to have the new books for their kids.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Students of Ashulia School of HOPE continued Football practice in February. The coach is working very hard to teach them. All students are also interested to learn much better. They are trying hard to be good football players. We are very hopeful about these students that they will be good players one day. Last month they practiced a lot. The coach taught them different types of rules and systems for playing and defending. They are doing very well. During 1st week of February, they practiced how to defend the oppositions. The next week they learned how to kick towards the goal post. The next two weeks they practiced the previous tricks. We hope we will continue the practice in future also and will get a good result from this.
