Annual Sports Day

On 25th January, Soham for All School of HOPE arranged their Annual Sports Day. The day was full of activities and joy. All the students participated on that day. It started by greetings and marching the ground with torch. There were four groups and every group participated in three categories. Students played race, frog jump, potato collection, biscuit race, balance race and balloon blasting. The special attraction was 'Go as you like'. There was games for parents and for the staff also. Participants got 1st, 2nd and 3rd prize and the champion got the special prize. Students enjoyed their snakes and the program ended with joy and happiness.
